

Wisconsin 2002 ILEC Feeder Fiber in Place

2002 Reported Feeder Fiber in Place

Year 2000 Feeder Fiber in Place

Fiber in the Feeder in this report is defined as a fiber facility originating in the central office and terminating at an intermediate distribution point such as a digital serving area. This fiber carries local traffic back to the central office. Feeder fiber often brings high speed networks and advanced services further into the network.

Map 3

January 2004
Public Service Commission